TAKING a welcome break from the pressures of the Rothmans Isthmian League, Wycombe Wanderers stage their first Premier Midweek Floodlight League match since October 16, tomorrow (Wednesday) when they entertain Chesham United at Loakes Park.

Larry Pritchard, Steve Perrin and Terry Reardon are all out of the game as they are in the England Squad to meet Scotland on Friday. Kevin Raine is likely to replace John Maskell in goal while full backs Derek Gamblin and Paul Birdseye are also due for a game. Graham Mackenzie is set for a place in midfield.

Chesham are currently going through a purple patch. Having beaten Carshalton by the amazing scoreline of 6-3 recently, they dealt out a telling blow to Tilbury's hopes of promotion in Division Two of the Isthmian League with a 2-0 win at the Meadow on Saturday.

Wanderers, however, have already beaten Chesham this term, albeit after a struggle in the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup, semi-final when they won 2-1 after extra time.
